

New store in Sarrola Carcopino

Saturday 8 April 2017

“L’Atrium” Retail Park
20167 Sarrola-Carcopina

Maisons du Monde is opening the doors of its 2nd store in Corse-du-Sud. New store, new team: 17 jobs have been created and sourced through local recruitment. A new address spanning over 1600 m2, the concepts showcased are at once inspired and inspiring, and cater for all home furnishing concepts: furniture, light fittings, textiles and tableware. Take a deep breath and be inspired Decoding and anticipating new trends, capturing changing lifestyles, mixing and matching styles: this is what has driven Maisons du Monde, since its creation, and enables it to create and develop diverse collections that are continually refreshed. There are no diktats here, the furniture and decorative accessories are not wedded to a particular style, but to all styles, to reflect your personality, emotions and tastes. Classic chic, exotic, contemporary, vintage, industry, coastal or country house vibe...

What will be your style?